

TEL: 860-275-8121

FAX: 860-275-8101

nva@avhlaw.com

Connecticut

---

Practice Areas

- » Intellectual Property

Nike Victoria Agman

ASSOCIATE

Nike Agman is an associate in the firm's Hartford office in the Intellectual Property Group with a focus on patent litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Nike taught at Yale University in the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures. As a graduate student and undergraduate, Nike conducted research in physical chemistry on the structure of cations and radicals using infrared and ultraviolet spectroscopy, and conducted research in biochemistry on phospholipid vesicles.

---

Bar & Court Admissions

- » Connecticut
- » U.S. District Court District of Connecticut
- » U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

---

Education

- » University of Connecticut School of Law, Hartford, CT, 2008 J.D.; Certificate in Intellectual Property, Certificate in Tax Law. Honors: CALI Awards in Patent Law and Procedure, Federal Income Tax, Tax Policy, and Lawyering Process
- » Yale University, New Haven, CT, 1994 M. Phil. Slavic Linguistics, 1993 M.A. Slavic Linguistics
- » University of California, Berkeley, CA, 1990, M.S. Chemistry
- » Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, MA, 1987 S.B. Chemistry

---

Publications

Nasal Assimilation in Polish: the Case of Nasal Vowels, in Formal Approaches to Slavic Linguistics, Ann Arbor: Michigan Slavic Productions (1997)

Nike Victoria Agman (continued)

Sub-Doppler Direct Laser Absorption Spectroscopy in Fast Ion Beams: the Fluorine Hyperfine Structure of HF+, Journal of Chemical Physics 90:3898 (1989) (with J.V. Coe, J.C. Owrutsky, E.R. Keim, D.C. Hovde and R.J. Saykally)

Enzymatic Hydrolysis of Short-Chain Lecithin/Long-Chain Phospholipid Unilamellar Vesicles: Sensitivity of Phospholipases to Matrix Phase State, Biochemistry 26:7409 (1987) (with N.E. Gabriel and M.F. Roberts)

---

Professional Activities

- » Connecticut Bar Association, Young Lawyers Section, Executive Committee 2009-present, Co-Chair Intellectual Property Section
- » Hartford County Bar Association
- » American Chemical Society